

BASEBALL OUTLOOK FOR TOMORROW

The Kamehameha baseball team is in a bad way for Saturday's game and from present indications it doesn't look as though they were going to be able to play, let alone winning.

J. Kekuewa and O. Jones are just recovering from the dengue. W. Vanatta is still sick in bed, and yesterday R. Reuter, the Kamehameha pitcher, was said to be sick in bed. It is impossible to replace these four men and it doesn't look as though they would be able to play.

The Elks are looking for a man to replace C. Cunha whom it is expected will leave for the Coast on the Siberia today. The Elks meet the Kamehamehas tomorrow. The Punahou are also minus a man. M. Robinson, their catcher, has gone to Molokai and is not expected back in time to play in the game Saturday afternoon. Hemenway will probably take his place, though his finger which was badly injured early in the season is not entirely well yet.

There will be a baseball meeting in Elks Hall this afternoon at 5 p. m. at which matters of importance to the teams will be discussed.

There will be a cricket match at the Makiki grounds tomorrow afternoon between the Scotland eleven and one called the "Rest of Honolulu." This eleven will be selected from among the following men: Ahlo, Beardmore, Gaines, Cox, Harwood, Harvey, Tullitt, Stanley, Miles, Jordan, Wills, Gill, Hatfield, Pianaia. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

CHILLINGWORTH STOPPED RUNAWAY

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth made a daring stop of a runaway on King street yesterday. At about 11 a. m. a horse belonging to the Honolulu Iron Works dashed up the street with a light wagon behind it.

Chillingworth was standing by the Union Grill, when the horse which was a large powerful animal, came along scattering the crowd from right to left. Chillingworth made a dash and caught the horse by the mane and its bit, and although he was dragged for a considerable distance, the animal was finally brought to a stop by E. O. Hall's store. Chillingworth was not hurt. The driver, Alex. Riddell, was arrested for leaving his horse untied.

CONSECRATION OF BISHOP LIBERT

The Bishop will not return for three or four weeks. He expects to visit in Los Angeles and other California points before returning.
